Home Department

G.O. Ms.No. 2073 Dated the 10th June 1963
Read the following:-

From the Inspector-General of Prisons,
No. 1333-B4/62 dated 14-5-1963.

ORDER:

The Government sanction with effect from the date of this order the revision of scale of pay of the post of wireman in the Jail Department from Rs.35--2--55--1--60 to Rs.45--2--65. No person should be allowed to draw pay in the revised scale of pay unless he possesses the qualifications mentioned below:-

(1) He should have studied upto V Standard, and
(2) should have Practical experience in electrical operation and maintenance for a period of not less than 3 years out of which at least 2 years should have been spent in the type of work concerned.

Provided that the period of practical experience prescribed shall be reduced by two years in the case of a candidate who possesses wireman's certificate of the Government School of Technology, Madras or any other institution approved by the Chief Engineer for Electricity.

2. The question of permanent retention of the posts of wiremen in the Jail Department will be considered along with the question of permanent retention of all temporary posts in the manufactury sections and the technical staff in the Jail Department with reference to the recommendations of the Jail Reforms Committee and orders will be issued in due course separately.

Copy of letter No. 1398-B4-52, dated 14th May 1953 from the Inspector-General of Prisons, Madras to the Secretary to Government, Home Department, Madras.

Sub: JAILS - Establishment - Post of wireman - Scale of pay - Revision of - Proposal submitted.

Ref: 1. G.O. No. 2239, Public Works Department dated 2--5--52.
2. Home Department Memo No.35579 Prs.I/53-2, dated 18-3-1952.

With reference to the above Government memo, I have to state, that the following 12 wiremen are employed in the Jail Department as noted below, on the receipt of pay in the scale of Rs.35-2-55-1-60 in temporary establishment, eventhough their services are considered absolutely essential. The above posts are renewed year after year.

Central Jail, Visakhapatnam.	1.	Sri S. Simhachalam
Central Jail, Bellary.	2.	Sri T. Selvaraj
Alipuram Jail, Bellary.	3.	Sri T. Arumiaswamy
Central Jail, Vellore.	4.	Sri T. Singaravelu
Central Jail, Coimbatore.	5.	Sri N. Parasuraman
-do-	6.	Sri P.S. Daniel.
-do-	7.	Sri N. Chinnappan.
Central Jail, Tiruchirapalli.	8.	Sri N. Guruswamy
Central Jail, Cuddalore.	9.	Sri A. Samuel.

Central Jail, Cannanore.	11.	Sri V.T. Padmanabhan Nair.
Central Penitentiary, Madras.	12.	Sri B. Padmanabha Reddi.

2. The above said 12 individuals are in possession of the minimum qualification as stated in letter No.27/H/53-1 dated 23-1-1953 of the Chief Engineer for Electricity, Madras (copy enclosed).

3. The Chief Engineer for Electricity, Madras states in his letter No.1321/H/53-1 dated 27-4-1953, that the wiremen of his department are generally in-charge of distribution, sup lying power, attending to service connection and maintenance of lines. No specific hours of duty are fixed for wireman in distribution schemes and they are expected to be always available for duty in emergencies.

4. The wiremen of the jail department are not only attending to the electric installation, radio, fans etc., but also to the maintenance and proper up-keep of the different motors, engines and water pumps etc., installed in the factories and gardens of the Jails. They are whole-time Government servants expected to be always available for duty in emergencies.

5. As the nature of duty and the responsibilities fixed on the wiremen of the jail department are on a par with the wiremen of the Electricity Department, I request that the Government may be pleased to revise the scale of pay of the wiremen of the jail department, as applicable to the wireman of the Electricity Department viz., Rs.45-2-65 and order the permanent retention of these posts from 1-4-1953 in view of the fact that their services are absolutely necessary for the day to-day administration of the jail department. The extra expenditure involved in the above proposals will be about Rs.1,152/- per annum.
